NFHS MUSIC ASSOCIATION

Membership Information

Membership / Objectives

The NFHS is comprised of a membership of more than 50 state associations and affiliates involving 20,000 high schools, 500,000 coaches and directors, and 500,000 officials and judges. The combined efforts of these organizations and individuals provide a wide range of athletic, speech, debate, music and theatre activities for nearly 12 million high school students.

The NFHS Music Association is a national network of music directors, adjudicators and state coordinators of music activities. Its basic purpose is to improve the level and quality of participation and adjudication at high school festivals/contests within each state and among the several states.

The mission of the NFHS Music Association is to identify and meet the common needs of music educators who participate in or sponsor high school interscholastic activities, an educational extension of the school music curriculum.

To Achieve This Mission, the NFHS Music Association Will Seek To:

- Stimulate an exchange of ideas that will minimize duplication of efforts
- Advocate stronger ties between state and regional programs
- Offer a network of communication
- Provide resources to enhance the quality of music festival/contest adjudication
- Publish and disseminate relevant materials
- Provide member services

Benefits

- Excess liability insurance (see www. BollingerNFHS.com for details on the policy)
- A subscription to the NFHS Music Association Journal
- All issues of High School Today
- Training materials for music festival management and adjudication
- Discount privileges on car rentals
